

Happy birthday Discover India

New Delhi, IN, Release: September 18, 2019. For Immediate Release

Discover India is 30 years old. On this occasion, the agency wants to revitalize and modernize its image and offers a new logo.

Know-how and originality are the key words of this local agency based in New Delhi, creating emotions. At our side, discover India and the subcontinent like never before.

Looking for an authentic experience in India for your customers? Discover India is a responsive agency whose tailor-made programs meet a demanding clientele.

We believe that the trip must be unforgettable, so we do not neglect any detail and leave nothing to chance. The advice of all our specialists allows us to select the best accommodation, the best guides and the best excursions possible according to the requirements of the traveler, his desires, and his passions in order to be closer to his interests.

Our experienced team consists of globetrotters and tourism professionals with long-standing experience in the luxury and corporate sectors; their know-how is to give travelers a unique, exotic, even extraordinary experience! It is a total immersion in a cocktail of cultures, with assured comfort.

We promise our travelers to accompany them in their choices and different types of trips: cultural tours, beach holidays, photo safari, care and well-being, honeymoons, sports or adventures.

We have years of experience in creating authentic, original travels that match the expectations of your clients, their dreams and also their budget by focusing on Rajasthan, South India (Kerala, Karnataka, Tamil Nadu ...)) as well as the little-known regions of central India.

We are proud to offer personalized service and seamless travel experiences to your valued customers.

Our experienced concierge experts are available 24/7 via a mobile phone when your VIP travelers arrive and our cars have free WiFi access.

To earn your trust, we assure you that our services will be remarkably attentive and efficient. The execution of the projects will be appropriate to your economic imperatives and incomparable compared to our competitors.

We are in close contact with several large hotel chains, charming palaces or small charming residences to offer you excellent rates and of course an added value to your customers.

Our head office is in New Delhi with offices throughout India, Nepal, Bhutan and Sri Lanka to ensure responsive and quality service.
